the law of double taxation conventions cross border activities or transactions may trigger tax liability in two or more jurisdictions in order to mitigate the financial burden resulting from these situations states have entered into numerous double taxation conventions which provide for rules that allocate the taxing rights between the contracting states this handbook aims at providing an introduction to the law of double taxation conventions it is designed for students irrespective of their national background but the author believes that it will also be of great help for tax experts who wish to know more about double taxation conventions as well as for international law experts who wish to understand more about tax law the handbook does not consider one jurisdiction in particular but rather takes examples from a wide range of different countries and their jurisdictions it includes an overview of the problem of double taxation the state practice in the conclusion of double tax conventions and their effects the interpretation of double taxation conventions and treaty abuse furthermore this updated handbook takes new developments into account occurred since the last edition of the book from 2013 in particular also the changes through oecd s beps project and the multilateral instrument it deals with the latest versions of the oecd model tax conventions on income and on capital and the un model double taxation convention between developed and developing countries both published in 2017 as well as the latest version of the oecd model double taxation convention on estates and inheritances and on gifts development interventions are agreed by states and international organisations which administer public development funds of huge proportions they have done so with debatable success but unlike the good governance of recipients the rules applying to donors have hitherto received little scrutiny this analysis of the normative structures and conceptual riddles of development co operation argues that development co operation is increasingly structured by legal rules and is therefore no longer merely a matter of politics economics or ethics by focusing on the rules of development co operation it puts forward a new perspective on the institutional law dealing with the process instruments and organisation of this co operation placing the law in its theoretical and political context it provides the first comparative study on the laws of foreign aid as a central field of global public policy and asks how accountability autonomy and human rights can be preserved while combating poverty
