violence against women vaw and girls exists in all countries and across all socio economic groups with around one in three women experiencing sexual and physical violence in their lifetime worldwide this issue was exacerbated by the covid 19 pandemic intensifying the need for urgent action to eradicate it many governments including in the mena region have enacted policies and programmes to tackle vaw however limited strategic planning long term investment in services and co ordinated responses among public institutions and actors involved in the implementation of vaw strategies have made it difficult to break the vaw cycle drawing on data collected through the 2022 oecd survey on strengthening governance and victim survivor centric approaches to end violence against women in mena countries this report provides an overview of mena countries efforts to develop whole of government vaw responses especially during the covid 19 pandemic and with a view to help anticipate future crises it assesses the gaps that hinder progress towards achieving lives free from violence for all women and girls and provides recommendations to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of the policy and institutional frameworks across mena countries in addressing vaw why have many victim centred policy initiatives met with so little success how have those initiatives unfolded differently in different global jurisdictions over different periods of time this book aims to address these questions building on a major research project exploring victims access to justice over time and place victims access to justice considers the potentialities for victims participation in criminal justice systems and in victim programmes both in historical and comparative context it considers a range of topics ways of identifying and accommodating victims needs and senses of justice the impacts for criminal justice systems of seeking to accommodate these and the ways in which adversarial criminal justice systems in particular may enable or inhibit victim participation this is essential reading for all those engaged in understanding and working with victims of crime anthem of misogyny the war on women in north africa and the middle east argues that misogyny which operates through an interconnected network of ideologies institutions beliefs aesthetics and cultural trends is too complex and too deep rooted to eradicate with superficial changes like a national anthem misogyny in north africa and the middle east has acquired a sacred status it is accepted uncritically and woven effortlessly into daily practices creating a community of men of different ages educational levels and socioeconomic backgrounds who are united in their sense of entitlement to evaluate scrutinize deter question and expose women for women it is as if they are in a state of perpetual war forever on the verge of being accused of deviating from the norms and being punished these norms however are neither clear nor predictable this study of misogyny is written against a dominant orthodoxy in western feminism critics are accused of gendered orientalism savior complexes and even islamophobia if they dare to bring up misogyny and gender based violence in north africa and the middle east in contexts other than calling it a western created issue rather than exaggerate western agency this book is invested in making muslim agency visible there are narratives of violence and injustice that produce discomfort anger and even despair these stories deserve to be told and those behind the injustices are entitled to an unfiltered portrayal because the non west too is deserving of unapologetic feminist critique
